FATAL FALL FROM MAST AT SYDNEY

George Roenitz, the pineapple capitalist, is at Sydney, N. S. W., from whence he will tour the world. Mr. Roenitz was on board the training ship Herzogin Sophie Charlotte when the following tragedy occurred:

A sad accident occurred yesterday afternoon on board the German training ship Herzogin Sophie Charlotte, resulting in the death of Werner Holm, 20, one of the cadets belonging to the vessel. Holm had been sent aloft, and he was on the jigger mast fixing some ropes when he missed his footing and fell a distance of about 80 feet. His head struck the roof of the navigation school, a building on the main deck, and his skull was smashed. Dr. Silver Wood, the surgeon of the training ship, and Dr. A. Murray WHI, were quickly on the scene and pronounced life extinct. The Civil Ambulance removed the body to the morgue. The deceased, who was a native of Brunswick, Germany, was one of 54 cadets now undergoing a course of training, and was in his second year. He was very popular, and his tragic death was deeply regretted by the ship's company.—Sydney (N. S. W.) Herald, March 26, 1907.

CONSUL UYENO TO REPORT ON
'FRISCO AFFAIRS

Japanese Consul K. Uyeno of San Francisco, who has been granted a leave of absence by his home government, is returning to Tokyo on the Hongkong Maru. He was banqueted last night at the Mochizuki Club at Wakiki, Consul General Saito and his staff and Mr. Akai of the Speech Tank were present and a general good time was enjoyed. Consul Uyeno held the San Francisco post for the last seven years and is taking the first vacation. During his absence, Acting Consul Matsubara, who was formerly here, will look after the Consulate affairs.

Consul Uyeno is a splendid type of Japanese and both he and Mrs. Uyeno are handsome and dignified. In an interview with a representative of the Gazette, Consul Uyeno said that he is going home on a leave of absence and will officially pay his respects to his superior, the Minister of the Department of Foreign Affairs. When interrogated further, Consul Uyeno said that the school question has somewhat worried him and is a delicate question to handle.

"Yes, I am going to submit my official report to His Excellency, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, when I arrive in Japan. I cannot give out the subject matter at this time."

Consul Uyeno expects to be sent back to San Francisco, where he and Mrs. Uyeno are well liked and respected by the people.
